IMA Student Officers Virtually Attend Student Leadership Conference

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, this year’s Student Leadership Conference was held virtually on November 13th, 2020. Our IMA Student Officers attended a number of informative sessions such as “Leading through Change” presented by Mr. David Burritt, CEO of U.S. Steel Corporation, “Future—Ready Leadership for Impact and Influence” presented by Ms. Rachel Druckenmiller, CEO of UNMUTED, and “Career Success in the Digital Age” presented by Mrs. Loreal Jiles, Director of Research—Digital Technology and Finance, IMA. While this year’s conference was not held in person, it did not reduce the amount of fun experienced by the Student Officers. In addition to posting about the conference on the uofs_ima Instagram page, the student officers attended the day’s events on a single Zoom with each other so they could discuss each session with one another. Overall, the 2020 IMA Student Leadership Conference was a success where the officers had a fun-filled day learning about leadership, industry, and the IMA!

The 2021 Student Leadership Conference will be held from November 4th - 6th in Anaheim, CA. Anyone interested in learning more about the SLC should contact Prof. Ashley Stampone at ashley.stampone@scranton.edu.

Submit Photos of Your Pet for “Pet of the Week”

Do you have a photogenic furry family member? If so, we want to know! This semester, the University of Scranton IMA Student Chapter will be featuring a “Pet of the Week” on the organization’s social media pages.

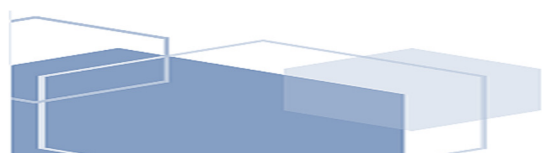

If you want your furry friend to be featured on our page, please submit your pet’s photo to Sarin Baldante at sarin.baldante@scranton.edu.

We cannot wait to see your pets!

Alumni Spotlight: Daniel Buzzerio

Daniel Buzzerio (20') has a lot to celebrate. Not only did he successfully pass the Certified Public Accountant (CPA) Exam, but he also completed the examinations for his Certified Managerial Accountant (CMA) designation—the esteemed dual certification. Daniel achieved this by starting his studies while he was in his senior year, and by committing to passing these examinations on his first try.

Daniel took the first part of his CMA Exam in November 2019. Upon hearing of his pass results, he soon focused on passing the various parts of the CPA Exam. He successfully passed his last part of the CPA Exam in September 2020, and he took the second part of his CMA Exam soon after. In November 2020, Daniel found out he successfully passed this section.

A resident of River Edge, NJ, Daniel was a member of both the Honors Program and the Business Leadership Honors Program while at the University. He is currently employed with PwC as an Assurance Associate in the Florham Park Office.

We congratulate Daniel on his accomplishments!
